SIR,

Transfer of Dharmadaya Service Inam lands of Bommalapur Chattram in Koppa Taluk, to the temple of Sri Tripurantakamma at the place.

I have the honor to forward herewith copies of letters No.15-10/35-36 dated 3-7-1935 and 1-4-1936 from the Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, together with the file of correspondence on the subject.

in accordance with the terms of Inam Settlement (vide copy of Inam Register enclosed in the records).

3. It is seen from the records that the Anna Chattram and other services were meant for the convenience of the devotees that attended the temple of Sri Tripurantakamma at the place, that the chattram ceased to function about 50 years ago and that the feeding and the other services however continued to be done in the temple by the persons who were in possession of the inam lands. S.No.99 is in the possession of Krishnadevarabhatta and Suryabhatta who are the archs of the above temples and they are said to be attending to the feeding of the devotees. Hanja who is in possession of the other land is said to be attending to the river raft service for the convenience of the devotees and lighting service in the temple. The villagers want these lands to be transferred to the above temples and the persons i the enjoyment of the lands have also no objection to the transfer.

4. The Deputy Commissioner states that the persons in the enjoyment of the inam lands have been giving all facilities to the devotees who visit the temple, and recommends the transfer as prayed for by the villagers.

5. The temple of Sri Tripurantakamma is a village Muzrai institution with poor income not sufficient for its maintenance. It is reported that the institution is an important one and is functioning well.

6. I request that in the circumstances explained, the Deputy Commissioner's recommendation for the transfer of the Dharmadaya Service Inam lands to the temple as Devadaya may kindly be sanctioned as the present holders of the lands have no objection to surrender possession thereof to the temple management (vide statement dated 23-12-1935).

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. N. Ramakrishnan 16.4.36.

for Muzrai Commissioner.

Letter No.A5-10/35-36 dated 5-7-35 from the Deputy ... District, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

I have the honor to forward herewith the vernacular correspondence ending with Tarikere Sub Division Officer's No.32-1000-33 dated 29-5-35 in the matter of the defunct chattram at Bomlapur, Koppa Taluk, and to state that the marginally noted dharmadaya lands have been endowed to the chattram for support. It is reported that the chattram is not in action for over 50 years. Inam land R.S.No.99 is being enjoyed by one Krishnabhatta paying only jodi to Government. He is vahivatdar of one Sri Tripurantakamma temple of the same village. The other land viz., S.No.132 is in possession of one Panja who is said to be doing some service in the above temple.

This temple is a village institution endowed with inam lands (devadaya) as noted below.

" 221 garden0 -18g. " " 5-8-0.

The Amildar, Koppa Taluk reports that 5 maunds of areca and 16½ pallas of paddy are being realised annually from the above lands and that daily worship and vasantha (ವಸಂತ) once a year are being conducted from the proceeds of the lands referred to. It is stated that this temple is an important institutionin the village and the income that is being realised now is inadequate to meet the daily expenses of this institution and that it deserves some encouragement. The Amildar recommends that the lands endowed to the chattram may therefore be transferred to this temple. The Sub Division Officer recommends the proposal of the Amildar.

In the circumstances explained above, I recommend that the chattram may be treated as a defunct one and abolished and the lands endowed to this institution transferred to the name of Sri Tripurantakamma temple of the same village, the tenure of the land being changed as D e v a d a y a.
